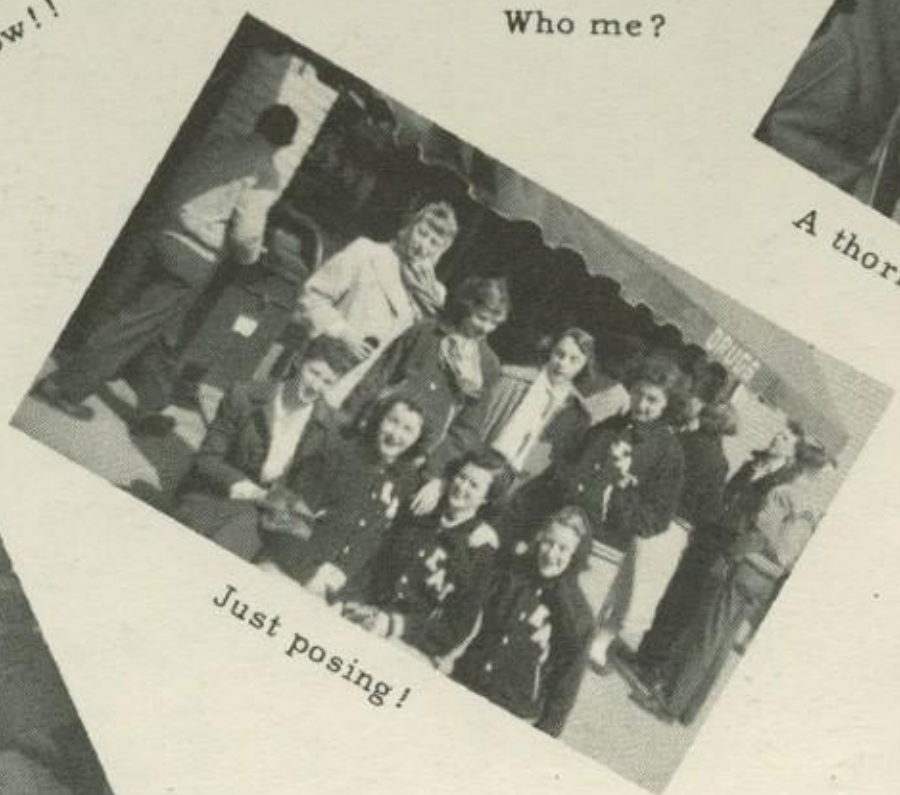
Say now!!

Who me?

Together

A thorn among the roses



Just posing!

Well, of all the nerve!

What a revolting situation!

Seriously, aren't we cute?

Backs, backs everywhere and not a face to be seen

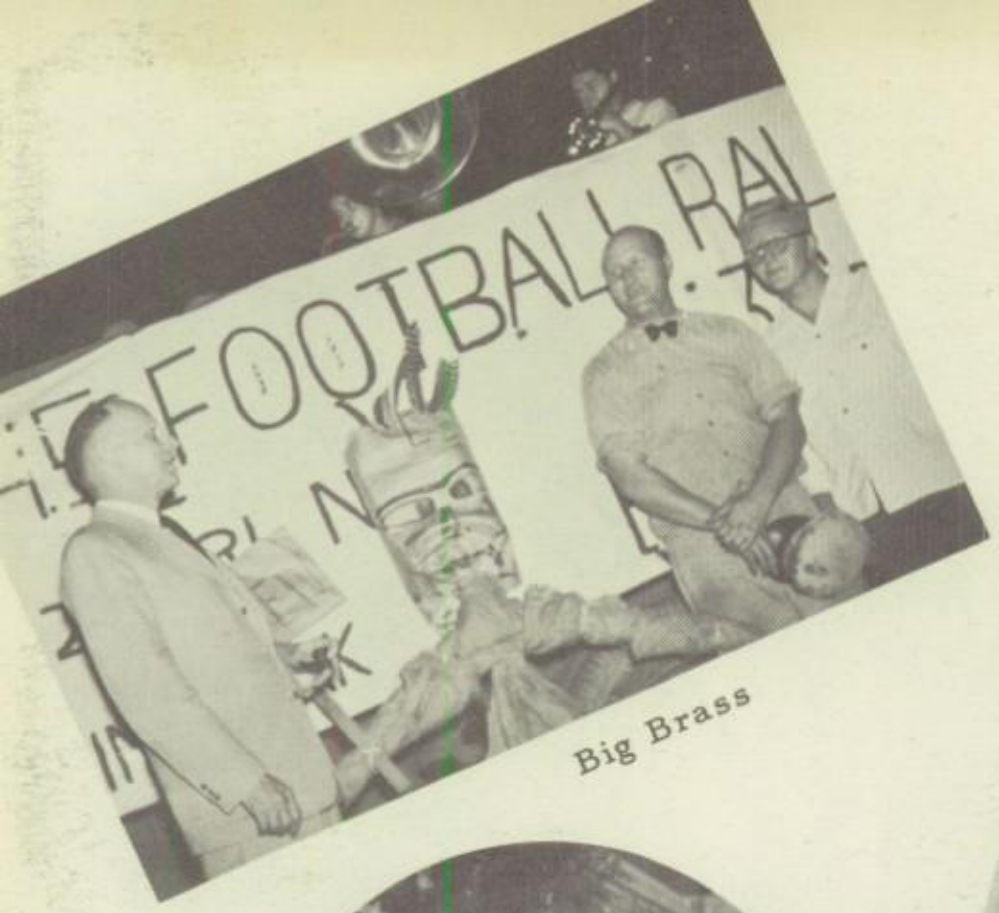
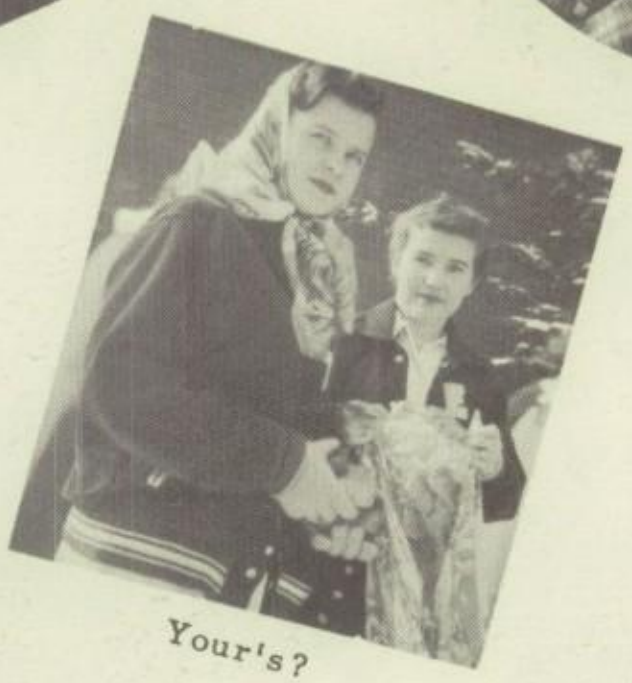
Chessettes '52



Big Brass

Pretty?



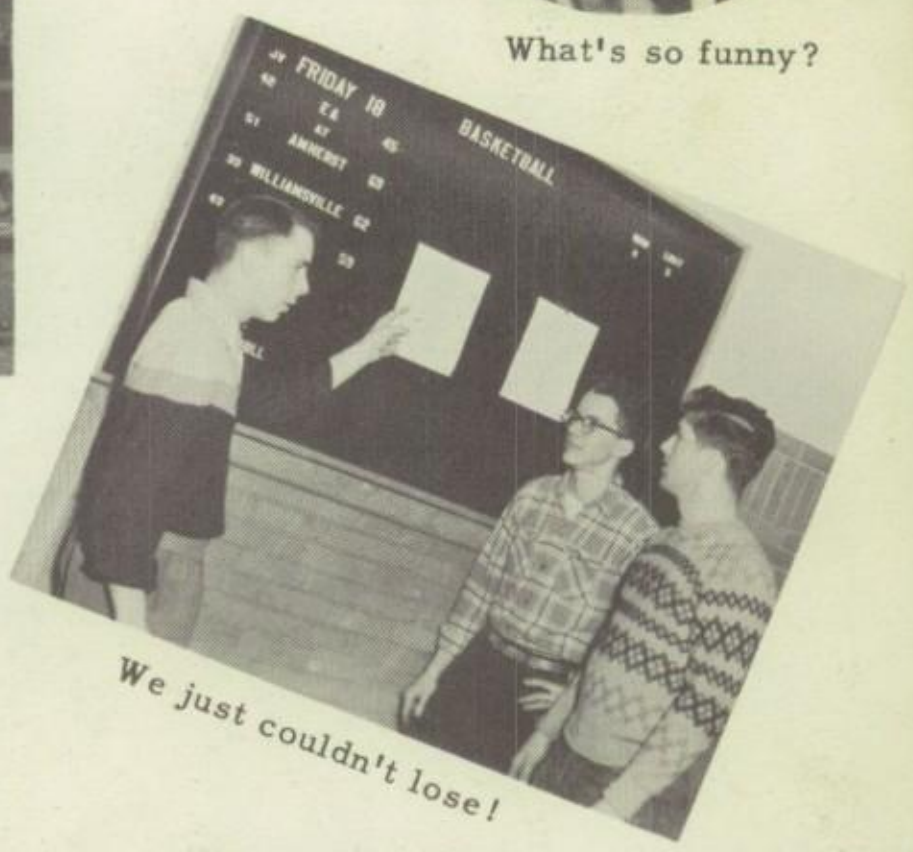
Your's?

What ya got?

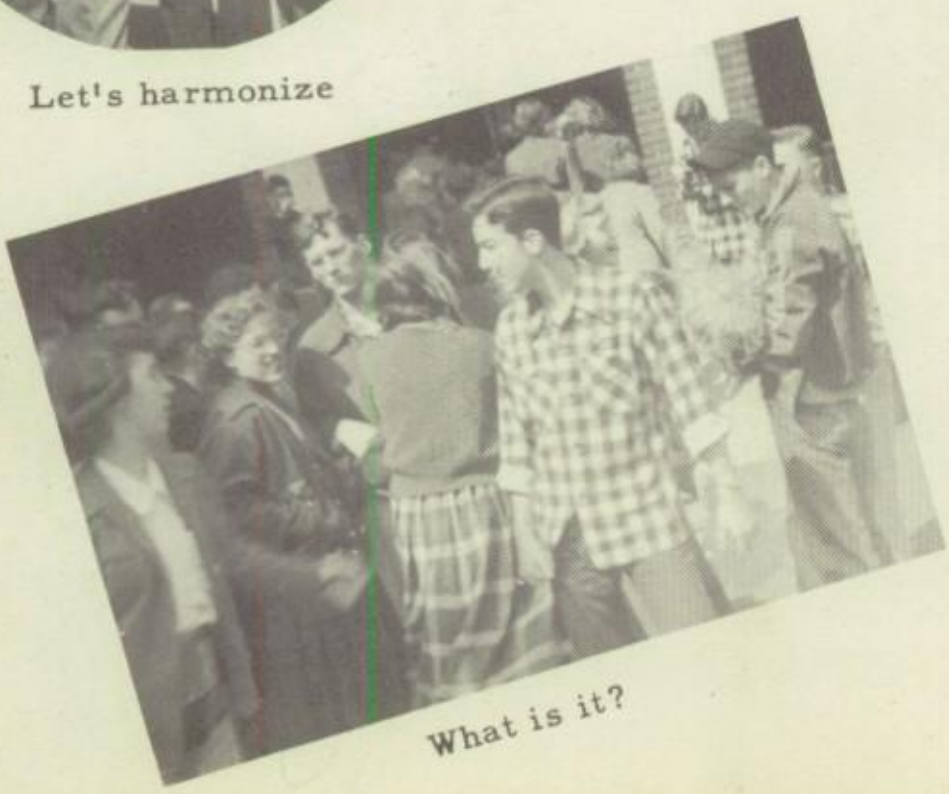
What's so funny?

Ah! Spring

Let's harmonize

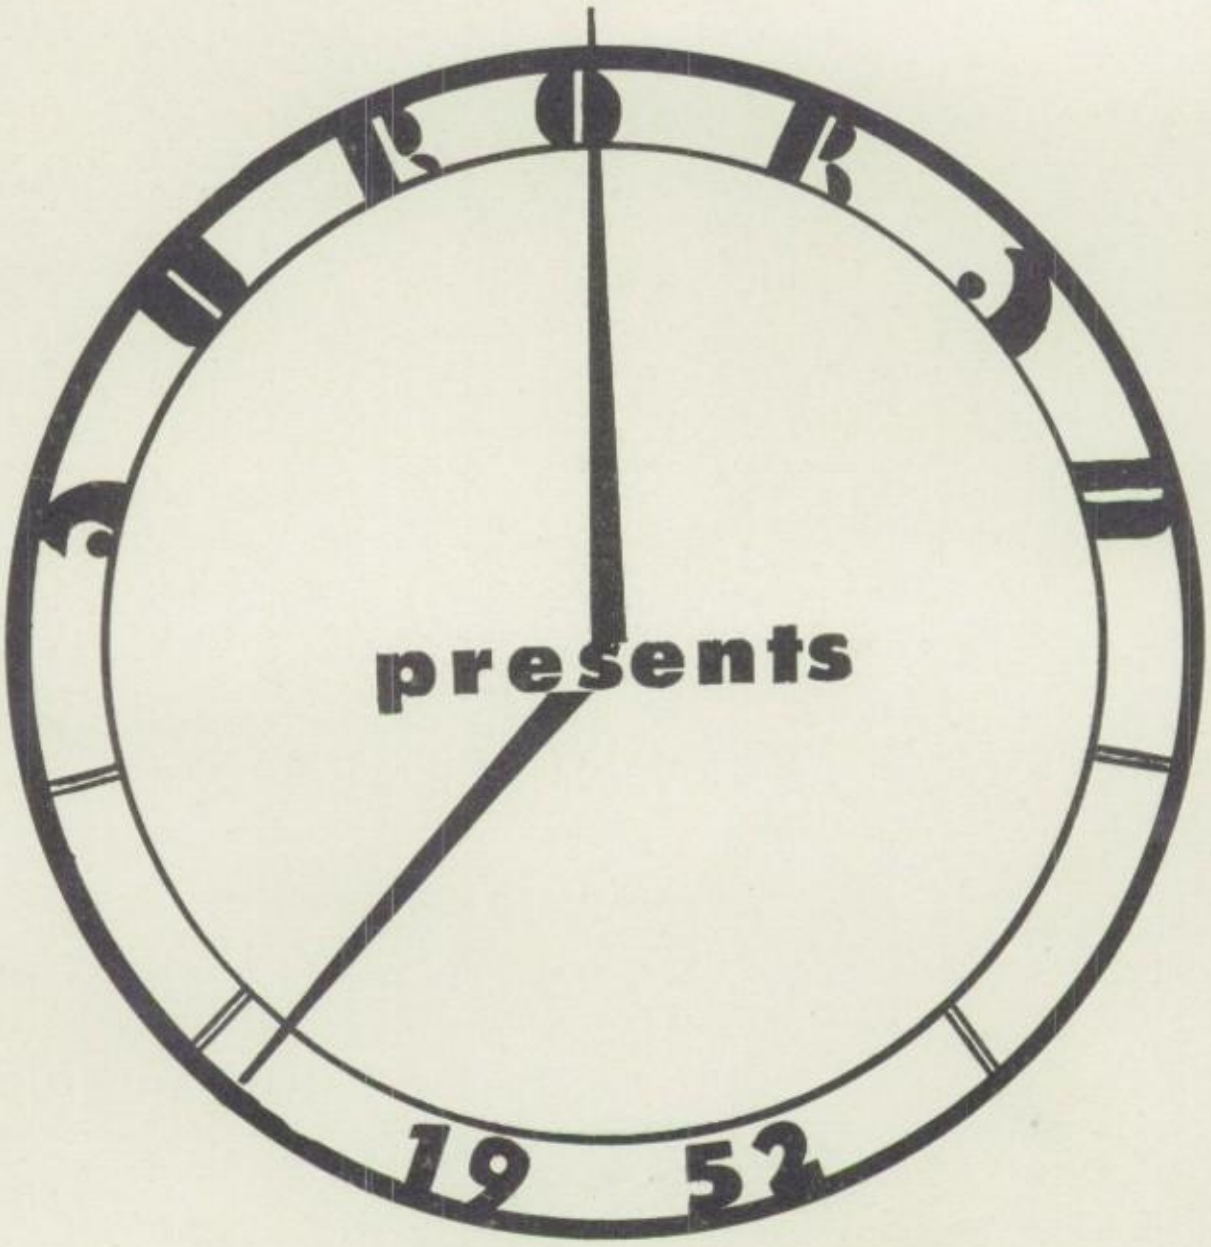


We just couldn't lose!



What is it?

Oh no, not again!



The hand's of Time hold many precious gifts. Choose them as you will, or leave them; and according to our choice so is life.

foreword

TIME

Oh Time, you creep on endlessly
With careful steps and slow,
And yet, we never seem to be Aware that you will go.

Machines are such that we may stop
Them if we wish it so;
But quite regardless of our wish
You go, and go, and go.

Just where you go we cannot know,
E'en though we try to find,
And still, you push on, ever on,
A-leaving us behind.

So, we must learn to hurry, too,
And do what we must do,
E'en though the days allotted us
May sometimes seem so few.

dedication

Where now to look to find that peace so rare,
When earth is darkened by the cloud of war,
And all men's thoughts are flung into despair
By death, brought near by cannons' deafening roar?
When fear and doubt and pestilence and pain
O'ershadow goodness, faith and charity,
And over mortals minds as kings do reign,
The world seems dark to all humanity.
But must this last forever? There will be
Some future time when peace will reign supreme
In all men's minds, though difficult to see
Beyond the void of war's relentless scheme.
When hateful, selfish thoughts toward others cease,
Then only will we gain the perfect peace.

board of education

To many of us, the School Board is the mysterious name which authorizes much of the activity of the school. Although not really mysterious, for it is made up of persons well known to us, the Board works long and hard on the business of the school. This year the building of the new elementary school has meant added work. We owe a vote of thanks and appreciation to our School Board for their splendid work.

This book is a record of what you have counted as significant. Now you begin to look ahead, to see a troubled and uncertain world. Time for military training appears as part of your life. You realize that the opportunities offered and the Freedom we all enjoy must be guarded even with our lives.

There has never been a time when more choices for a life of work and adventure existed. Expanding fields of scientific activity in Electronics, Chemistry, and Engineering need people trained in these fields and eager to work. Advances in production call for more trained people to sell and service new products. There is great need for more well prepared teachers.

As you leave here, remembering the obligation to give as you receive, you will find a place for yourself where you will be happy and successful. We here in E.A.H.S. believe in you and wish only the best for you.

Walter L. Bumgardner

administration

The Class of 1952 is about to write "Finis" to an important chapter in its history. It has been an exciting twelve year story and its conclusion is doubtlessly stimulating and satisfying. The next chapter concerns the Future and its promise is compelling. Best wishes to you all in your endeavors.

Thomas C. Moore

Congratulations Class of 1952. May you have enjoyed your high school days as much as we have enjoyed having you here. It is our sincere hope that the education you have received will help you to find your place in society and to become a worthy member of that group. Good luck and best wishes to each of you.

Harriet Stambro

guidance

Work, perseverance, and patience are three things I hope you have learned from your school experience. If you have these three qualities, I am sure you will go a long way in life. Lacking any one of the three you will not climb very far. Take time to reflect on this and some day when the going seems rough, you will find in the end you will win. What has gotten you this far? Work, perseverance, and patience.

H. L. McReel

To the Class of 1952. Congratulating you holds special significance and pleasure because a brief six years ago we became members of East Aurora High School together. How quickly those years have nurtured you to greater maturity, carrying both you and me through a whirlwind of activities. Those years of friendship, mutual counsel and efforts shared will long be cherished. Best wishes always.

Alfred H. Richert

You have chosen an endless theme, "Time". Poets and philosophers have vied with scientists for an explanation, yet the veriest child knows its mystery. Ben Franklin said, "You value life? Then value time, for time's the stuff life's made of." The poet said of Civil War days, "These are the times that try men's souls." A statesman strives for "Peace in our time." In moments of great happiness, you will say,

"Time, you old gypsy man, will you not stay,
Put up your caravan just for a day?"

But always we can carry on when we remember that "Our times are in Thy hand, O Lord."

senior advisors

Mr. Kelver

Mrs. Hoover, Mr. Beebe, Mrs. Peek.

"My Time is Your Time" was the theme song of Mr. Beebe as an advisor of the senior class. His interest, enthusiasm, and willingness to help us, added greatly to the success and enjoyment of our senior year. As time goes by, we shall remember his kindness, his leadership, and his understanding of our problems.

class history

This Class of '52 has many priceless memories of its past. We would like to share a few of them with you. Perhaps you would like to see how we grew from kindergardners into proud Seniors.

For most youngsters the word kindergarten is almost a synonym for the trapeeze set by the window. It was no different with us. We stood in fear and awe of it for a long time but one of us, Bob Thur, had no such inhibitions. He climbed all over it like a little monkey, thus becoming the hero of those happydays. We made butter too, each taking a churn or two at it. What muscles our grandmothers must have had! Our butter never hardened!

Forward we marched into first grade where we met Miss Carpenter, Miss Morten and Miss Keefe. We built a lovely house of orange crates and there we kept ourselves very well. When Christmas rolled around, we made lovely little candles for our mothers. They really worked, too. The next year we were happy to find our teachers had learned enough to move up with us.

In third grade we were officially introduced to Nature by our new teacher, Mrs. Bartram. While the rest of us were learning the bird charts, Judy Shumway left us for the blue grass country. During this year Virginia Burdick had appendicitis and we all sent her get well cards. What we remember most from fourth grade is the wonderful picnics we had at the end of the year. One of them was held at John Herman's, another at Sally Smith's. Our fifth grade year was most eventful. We passed classes just like the high school and we had lockers that locked! We learned to write from Mrs. Mileham. Our dramatic attempts that year were Father Time's Birthday starring Fred Haines, and The Wilful Princess starring Virginia Burdick, John Herman, and Bill McGill. Sixth grade arrived making us the top men on the totem pole of elementary school.

We still passed for classes and we still had lockers. Turning our hand at journalism we edited a bi-yearly paper, "The Spinner." We will never forget the wonderful hours we spent listening to Mrs. Roberson read us "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come." It was really a thrill for us when we heard Miss Iris Coates was to be married. We collected money and spent much time picking out suitable gifts. One of the most worth-while lessons we learned in sixth grade was how to help in the library. In June a few of us assisted with inventory. We're afraid our teachers never really decided whether we did this to because of our sincere interest in library work or because we would miss classes. The crowning glory of our year was our operetta The Forest Court.

We all remember Jack McNulty's futil attempts to sit down in his turtle shell. Only a few of us noticed Dick Howell's self-conscious addition to his speech addressing Adie Young, The Queen of the Rippling Waters. We older children guided the youngsters in the cafeteria at noon. We caught the first graders kissing in the hall, too. The younger generation! We fear we suffered few pangs of regret at leaving elementary school. We were too eager to be "up and doing," and so we passed into Junior High.

Sad and strange to note, after we left fifth and later sixth grade, the practice of passing classes and locking lockers was discontinued. We wonder why?

Seventh grade marked the start of the General Language course. We who were "guinea pigs" will never forget the ominous "Hatching of the Egg" and the "I.P.T.B.I.'s." We have always been grateful to Mrs. Hamilton though, for the fine start she gave us in languages. She was also our seventh grade advisor. Another "first" for us, we were Mr. Moore's first seventh grade.

Eighth grade was highlighted by an argument in Mr. Hickey's math class as to whether the girls should wear skirts or dungaree's to our skating party. It was led by Virginia Burdick who was in favor of skirts and Joan Budgen favoring dungarees. Both these years our class was ably led by Bill Graham. We sadly bid good-bye to our classmate Adie Young who left to go to Troy.

As freshmen, it greatly added to our sense of dignity to find ourselves seated in the center section of the auditorium for assemblies. This year our social activities broadened. Besides a skating party, we had a dance, "Freshman Frolic" and we made some profit! This year Nellie Brown was our president and Mrs. Peek was our advisor.

This, our sophomore year was beyond doubt the best. We attribute it to the fact that a girl, Barb DiGangi, was our president. This was a big year for we became real Senior Highers. It was a great social year but we fear little learning was done. We sponsered the "Rainbow Whirl," an even greater success than last year's dance.

Our Junior year was busy and exciting. Our first project was the "Sadie Hawkins Dance," Schmooes blossomed everywhere. Barb Lawrence and Walt Nicoloff were chosen "Daisy Mae" and "Li'l Abner." Later we tackled the first really big job of our high school years. We jumped into preparation for the Junior Play with a determination to overcome the handicap of desk seats in our auditorium. (They seem to have the pyschological effect of scaring adults away.) We had many advantages however. Our play "Spring Green" was well directed by Miss Dorothy Dillon. Our committies really pitched in and worked. We can proudly say that "Spring Green" was a real success. Another project followed hard on the heels of our play. The Junior - Senior Prom confronted us. We dubbed it "Garden Party" and proceeded to make it live up to the standards set by other proms. A little before this we had taken a breather to see twelve members of our class enter the Senior National Honor Society. Jack McNulty was Junior president.

As we reached the last stretch of our life at E.A., we were a little bewildered by the sudden pile of responsibilities which descended on us. Soon, however, we rose out of the cloud of locker dues, applications for college and jobs, orders for graduation announcements, personal cards, project sheets, and other such matters, to try our hand at magazine sales. We soon found that we were not for selling magazines. However, Evelyn Bull won a lovely statue for highest sales in the class. November brought Christmas card sales and December brought planning for the New Year's Eve Dance. The dance was purely a social success. Our Leap Year Dance, the "Big Leap," was great fun and lots of gals got their guys that night! As a money making venture we sold refreshments at all the basketball and football games. Important names were everywhere in our senior class. Nelson Brown, president of the Student Council and Klaus Gail, president of the Senior Class are examples. The success of our Senior year has depended a great deal on the assistance and guidance of Mr. Nisita, Mrs. Peek, Mr. Beebe, Mr. Moore and Miss Stambro.

As we have looked back through the pages of the past, we have recalled some wonderful years. We of the Senior Class hope that the years will rollby for succeeding classes as smoothly and happily as they have for us.

prophecy

In this Class of '52
Is there a name you never knew?
Look into Time's Hour Glass
See what's happened to your class.
Has that unknown name now grown
To a name that's world reknown?
In the flowing sands of Time
See friends passing, yours and mine.
In the year of '62
Let us see, have dreams come true?

Marie Basil, we found, is known near and far
As a commercial artist and a singing star.

Elvera Kalle has a two-fold career
She's a model in New York, and a secretary here.

When greeting our friends, we missed Nancy Dye;
She's a Wave now, and has a rank quite high.

A good looking engineer we managed to hail
Nor were we surprised to find him Klaus Gail.

Another surprise, if this you can feature,
Is that Gringo Graham is now a gym teacher.

Carrie Edmunds has won all the honors in Phys. Ed.
She's playing pro football, at least so 'tis said.

Barb Baker is the world's second Salivador Dolli.
But then, we knew all along her art wasn't folly.

Our daydreaming Sweet, believe it or not,
Is now a great teacher, and loves every wee liyyle tot.

Di Foss is now singing in New Mexico;
She's enjoying herself, while making the dough.

Poor Mrs. Peek, she's really not well,
Ron Creps broke her heart when he broke her dear bell.

While walking around we heard a laugh almost forgotten,
It was that love, loaf, and laughter girl,
Twyla Ann Cotton.

Bob Smith is one guy we can't figure out!
His ambition is bachelorhood, (but his success we doubt.)

Fizby Crosby, a chemical engineer,
Has been breaking golf records far and near.

However though, there's one he's not broken;
Richard Howell has won the Open.

At last Laurie's happy-she's reached her ambition;
As a great Power's model, she's sweeping the nation.

Dr. Jean Schwartz was also on campus.
She promised free treatments to everyone of us.

Dave Ellis had to be satisfied with cars
'Cause that danged old rocket ship never saw Mars.

Sue Wyatt at last has realized her dream.
She's now playing center on Ferg's football team.

Carl Hagmire has easily made his million.
Now he's set his sights on making a billion.

Flossie Almeter is now a famous writer,
Best known for "The Mystery of the Old Lamp Lighter".

No longer in the Coast Guard is our Clifford Letson.
He got thrown out for wearing a Stetson.

Bill Reuman wants us to announce his ambition.
Sorry Bill, can't make this edition.

In the Air Force John Burton has starred;
He joined right after he got his draft card.

The Mercury dealer in town now is Rog Baker.
He finally graduated so we know he's no faker.

Draftsman Jean Becker is really a star;
Her skill at the board has won her a car.

George Fattey has his Ph. D.
He started from the top, you see.

A world traveler is Norma Keele;
Before Queen Elizabeth II she did kneel.

Ray Amsler is running a bank,
'Cause he got $5 worth of gas in a $4 tank.

Honeymoon in Hawaii and life out West!
Barb Lawrence, we know, deserves the best.

Flying a police car at lightning speed
Is engineer Grissinger taking the lead.

Shirley Blakeley is happy indeed
Whenever she's mounted upon her steed.

Marilyn Davies is now a nurse;
Her unlimited kindness has filled her purse.

Another world traveler has now arrived home
Though Ruth Penfold's single, she still likes to roam.

There's our best dancer, Cotton, Marlene;
She's seen in the best clubs with Nelson, Gene.

Claude Wrathall's now a married man;
He won the marathon he ran.

Don Vogt's a real millionaire;
If you need some dough he's got it to share.

Barb DiGangi's cheerleader at the Olynpics;
Turning gray skies to blue is one of her tricks.

Carolyn Ellis' is studying food;
She's a dietitian for everyone's brood.

Jack Dodge is getting pretty slick;
Playing football at Miami with Nick.

Paul Sharpe (remember that charmer?)
Made his splash in life as a successful farmer.

Fame and fortune came for Pete;
When Weltjen made millions on Easy Street.

Jane E. Dorn is successful , too;
She's telling others just what to do.

A worthy ambition had Jellybean Clarke;
"Twas success in all ventures and the hoy of a lark.

A registered nurse is Joanne Nolan
She's handing out pills--really, no foolin!

He's doing it now, as we knew he could,
A Theater Manager is Charlie Wood.

David Zoeller has got his own car
And in it he's traveled both near and far.

Dorothy Schickler is a great success
And all in the field of big busyness!

A telephone operator is Barb Teson,
Also she works hard in every season.

Marilyn Panton would like to be Pretty much like her hero, J. P.

There he is in the pitcher's box-
Playing professional ball is Lorne Yox.

Edward Adams has time to spare
He's seen the whole wide world by air.

A successful scientist is Audrey Beesing
She developed a drug to keep people from s sneezing!

Parsley Bower has achieved his wish!
Just before June his project came in with a swish.

The pride of the police patrol is Shirley Ells, with her driver's license, for safety surely.

Nelson Brown, a pilot is
Is now the captain of the lines.

A perfect arc welder is Nicpon, Joe;
Best in his field, he brings in the dough.

Dave Hower, an aeronautical engineer,
Has become so accomplished he's without peer.

Vaughn's a distinguished member of the cabinet,
As Secretary of Agriculture, Larrison's our bet.

Traveled through Europe has Wittmeyer, JoAnn,
She brought heather from Scotland; from Paris, a fan.

Mary Lou Anderson knows what's best
In our own country she traveled west.

Barb Parkinson models in New York for Powers
She was last in the Journal among the rare flowers.

Frank Nolan will be with us soon
He has just returned from a trip to the moon.

After graduating, Ken Ells had one ambition less;
Now he's busy and happy and a big success.

Nancy Ferguson really has tried
To be happy-go-lucky, taking life in her stride.

Our teacher M'Lou is living in Spain;
She's no longer Ehler's for Spanish's her name.

Of course Bonnie Reed has achieved her ambition;
She's got a convertible Pontiac bluesl' edition!

Jerry Wilkin's seeing the world with the Navy;
She know's where to go to get the gravy.

Happy as a princess is one of our year
Chickie Holmes is a gal with never a tear.

Out great and fierce hunter is tigerman Ray;
Stuart's piling up dollars, more'n more every day.

On the sunny side of the street one day
We saw Jerry Lewis and Sal Smith just passing our way.

Jane Falt has become a steno, one of the best;
She's guarding her S.D. from all the rest.

Movie man Lewis really has passed;
Humphrey is through with geom'try at last.

Look what Barb Gustavel has just done!
She bowled 299 and just for fun!

There's Butch Stohrer, an F.S. at C.
(Confidentially we're not sure what this could be.)

A boarding school teacher is Ellie Mack,
For teaching girls history she has a nack.

Al Offhaus knows all about Rome,
He's been 'round the world but he likes it best home.

Just back from a round-the-world trip,
Co Co Hurd says, "Travel by ship!"

Reporter Wilma Pfaff has created quite a stir
All her U.S. friends are in Germany with her.

Bill Dietsche's playing professional ball
With the Boston Red Sox; he's acclaimed by all.

It took just 9 seconds to run the 100 yard;
But for Don Becker it really was not even hard.

"Always be happy," we said to Ruth;
Ruth Hawley has done that and that is the truth.

Bob Simmons is the owner of a farm, very grand;
Buildings and animals and 7oo acres of land.

Remember Al Newell, the dignified guy?
He reached his ambition by just starting to try.

Here secret desire was roller skating;
My the Dervy Becky Havin's is now rating.

For Spain Alice Eckel's about to depart
She's mounted her broomstick and checked with her chart.

We notice a safety straight pin on the market;
Judy Shumway's devised them and nets all the profit.

Designer and builder is Bosko, LeRoy;
His Cadillac convertible for him is a toy.

When after college Chuck Raths rests
The tale of how he passed still ranks best.

There is Gordon Offhaus seeing the N.S.
But this isn't so strange; he's a real success.

Though she's seen the world, she still can't decide
Where could that ambition of Maureen Sullivan's hide?

Pinky Alexander plays a double part
Though a singer, she's a ballerina smart.

Trombone player Ronan's still alive!
Mike's set his sights on 95.

Howie Wurthner, Mr. Farmer, U.S.A.
Earned two new cars by pitching hay.

From a fine start in our magazine sale,
Evelyn Bull's made her mark in selling retail.

From East Aurora High Sally Warnke's gone;
She now owns a mansion surrounded by lawn.

Here's Eva Gerhardt who all her life spends Trying to turn week-days into week-ends.

There's Dick Willert engaged in something queer!
Oh, no, I forgot--he's an atomic engineer.

In a Pontiac Convertable we see Dave Clay;
He owns a business that really does pay.

Chris Blaydon surely must rate!
Rita Hayworth is his latest date.

A notable teacher is Moritz, Suzanne;
She's fulfilled her ambition and found a good man.

A music teacher is our Elaine Boldt
The songs by her students on the air float.

White bonnet, wooden shoes, and heart so gay,
That's the little Dutch wife of Donnie MacKay.

While observing inventors we saw more than one,
But none is better than Jim Hendersen.

The man who supplies the gourmets at Yale
Is no other than Yaw, (first name is Dale).

Norma Jean Kern will never want more
She's happy with four for Dorie's four.

Kennie Warters now has his say
As second Vice-President of the local Nu-Way.

The girl in the Navy is Betty Joy Silliman;
She's seeing the world and having great fun.

Long and happy is Pat Roger's life.
She's completely at ease and quite without strife.

With heart divided between classroom and bleach bleacher,
Ed Benz is an able coach and teacher.

An elementary teacher is Nancy Ruttan.
Besides that, she soon got her man.

Remember Dave Miller back at EA High School?
He's living an easy life---he's no fool!

Hats off to Mike Smalley, again and again.
For hitchiking around the world he has a yen.

Living a useful and successful life is Dick Pilger;
In his quiet way, he's still causing a stir!

Music, Maestro, they call out to Haines,
His enthusiasm for music never wanes.

Harry Schuhmann says he wants to be a "wheel".
Tell us, Harry, just what's the deal?

Now Dorrie Rose really has her guy--
It took no time at all for six years to fly by.

Know Stell Baker, our Swing Band Singer?
Her ambitions no secret, it's a humdinger.

Theresa Chowaniac's been travelling, we see,
For she's made her abode in gay Hawaii.

They thought Jack Teagarden was great till they knew
What our pal Tink Schopper could do.

Setting the world on fire is a tremendous deed,
But it's been accomplished by Marilyn Reed.

On life's stage Ginny Burdick plays the part
Of a noted professor of Dramatic Art.

A happy young woman is Woolley, Marlene.
She's stuck with her smile thru fat years and lean.

A travelling secretary is Teresa Pruski.
Really, she's busier than the proverbial bee.

The work of Gerald Cope is the most fun to see
He's testing mattresses in a mattress factory.

Through in half time, which is sure pretty quick
Paul Phillips found work in the field of Music.

Bob Thur's ambition is over and done.
Last year he finally bowled 301

"Rebel" Jim Bull is now rolling in money -
If you ask us, that's just the way he should be.

Happy-go-lucky is Dick Kittleson
He knows how to work and still have fun.

Though Hilda Bailey is happily married and settled.
For her spice of living never has dulled

A beauty culturist is Armading, Shirl.
As in high school, she's quite the girl.

Success in this world has been found by Carol Barrow;
Maybe it's because her mind isn't narrow.

Success has been found by Walt Nicoloff.
In this we cheer and our hats we doff.

A stock car champion is Mickey Reed
To the dangers of the sport he pays little heed.

As a stenographer, Claudia Spurck says you can Keep your eyes open for just the right man.

Charming and lovely is model Jean Purdy.
She's well-known and famous as we all can see.

Carol Dabb lost little time going West;
According to her, it really is best.

Nan Reading, the graduate from Cornell
Is now in Hone Ec. and all's really well.

We're glad Rita George did get a break,
But her sublime happiness is what takes the cake.

Lois Berg has seen a lot of success,
and it's sure to continue, at least that's our guess.

Top man in the Navy is Zimmerman, Gene.
When he's walking the decks, they'd better be clean!

Bev Hockens is smiling and gay
It's pretty fine 'cause she's always that way.

A dancing pilot is George William Lohr.
The Navy's using his talents more and more.

A girl who has seen the world is Joan Bender.
Her favorite person is the peanut vender.

Changing human nature for Joan Lux
Is for her like water sliding from ducks.

He's joined the Navy our Robert Miller,
Whenever stormy winds blow, he's at the tiller.

Jack McNulty is now on his way
To 99 years of grand living, so they say.

Carroll Schaub is a champion, of course.
She's won many trophies by riding a horse.

Paul Kenyon is an evangelist today.
He's a second Billy Graham, so they say.

Dave MacRoberts, with us in fifty-two,
Is a great success, through and through.

Under an arbor of red roses, Walter Nicoloff and Barbara Lawrence were crowned King and Queen of the Prom. Their attendants were Dianne Foss and Ray Amsler, Barbara Parkinson and Klaus Gail, and Carolyn Ellis and Nelson Brown. The entrance to "The Garden Party" was guarded by a gate that gave the appearance of entering a garden. Crepe paper streamers of various colors hung from the center and pale blue over the bleachers with roses fastened to the ends. The band stand was surrounded by a white picket fence with roses twining through them.

"SPRING GREEN"

Our Junior Play was a rippling comedy of three acts. The plot revolved around the mishaps of a budding scientist, Newton, his teenage pals, and the romance of his father and Nina. It was presented March 14-17, 1951, with an excellent attendance record.

Committees were: Costumes-Joan Clarke-Barbara Parkinson; Tickets-Nancy Reading; Props-Joan Lux; Stage crew-Lee Ess; Publicity-Marie Basil; Co-chairmen-Virginia Burdick-Pete Crosby.

Our sincere thanks to all those who worked on committees and to our marvelous director, Miss Dillon.

yearbook staff

Mr. Nisita

The staff of the 1952 Auroran began work under the guidance of Mr. Nisita and our very faithful Barb Baker. We were evidently riding on a "little white cloud" as far as our dreams of getting it out for Class Day are concerned. The last minutes were crammed full of odd jobs and much excitement.

Thanks to a hard-working staff and all those who donated much time and effort, our class book is now in your hands.

national honor society

The Junior National Honor Society is an organization composed of juniors who have maintained an average of 85 o/o throughout their freshman and sophomore years and who posses qualities of leadership, citizenship, service, and scholarship. Pupils who can meet these qualifications are inducted at the end of their sophomore year. One function of the group is performing services for the school.

This year the National Honor Society members have set a precedent they hope will be continued in the years to come. Besides having the annual installations, dinner, and open house, this year's members began tutoring under graduates who were having trouble in particular subjects, the members, having given freely of their own study time to help others raise their scholastic standing, dsscovered that to teach is to learn!

The Junior Red Cross got under way in November with the election of: Sue Wyatt, president; Carol Boldt, vice president; Marjorie Nelson, secretary; Lewis Humphrey, treasurer. Of course, nothing could have been done without the able and conscientious guidance of our advisor, Miss Hyde.

The fund drive was held from November 8 to November 16. The money collected during this time was sent to the National Children's Fund or used as a service fund. The project for December was the filling fo Christmas baskets. This was a big success, with 35 baskets going to needy families in this area. In February, 80 gift boxes were filled and sent to children in Europe.

In addition to the regular activities, cookies, popcorn balls, nut cups, and decorations were made for the Veteran's Hospital by the home economics classes, the mechanical drawing classes, the Art Club, and the FHA. Also, a group of 12 boys and girls sang for several Sunday chapel services, and several students groups entertained at evening programs in the hospital. During the visits of the Bloodmobile, many Junior Red Cross workers helped with serving and in the nursery,

This has been a busy year for the Art Club. Keeping up with the demands of our school activities, as well as doing an excellent job on every request, takes a great deal of time, talent, and effort.

The projects this year include: Paper Mache' Cat for the veteran's hospital; backdrop of firehouse for the Band Concert; cut-glass window for Christmas program; posters for school dances; "General Store" backdrop; repairing of the Blue Devil Head; Calendar for the hall; and Red Cross Posters for New Year's and Easter.

Truly a fine record of accomplishments!

In an attempt to make Highlights the kind of newspaper which would truly reflect school opinion and serve its readers, the staff has had adjustments to make to time and population. The paper has tried to keep on a regular three-week schedule for issuance, a newly-established record since we have printed the paper in school. Under Eleanor Mack, editor, assignment conferences were held in 316, approximately every two weeks. The staff tried to improve the arrangement of the paper and the quality of various types of writing. Miss Dorothy Dillon, adviser, was assisted by Miss Nancy Vogt and Mr. Carl Norberg. Mrs. Robert Parker, Miss Alice Lovell, and Mr. Wayne Getman have taken care of the technical staffs concerned with typing, off-set lithographing, and distribution.

student council

The Student Council started the 1951-1952 year with President Nelson Brown, Vice-president Walter Nicoloff, Secretary Mary Lou Lehmann, and a completely new set-up of senators and representatives. There were new by laws to work with. They now have five committees in the house and five in the senate. Each committee is presided over by a secretary, and each secretary is a member of the president's cabinet. Representatives are elected for two years, so that they will have a knowledge of the Student Council to pass on to new members. The Council sponsored a dance after the Hamburg game and a Sports Fest. The proceeds will be used to help the school in some way.

service club

Organized a few years ago, the Service Club is still a new up and coming organization. Its purpose is to serve in the best way possible, the school, its members, and the community. Activities the members take part in are: ushering at school events, hall monitors, selling tickets and programs at sporting events. The most improtant program sponsored by the club is the Variety Show, for the benefit of our adopted school in Germany. Barb DiGangi, president, Jane Dorn, chairman, and Mr. Beebe, faculty advisor, along with other committees, worked hard in making this a great success.

junior chorus

The Junior and Senior Chorus, consisting of 180 members, under the expert direction of Mr. Elwood Eaton, presented the following well-done programs and thus completed a very successful year.

First, the combined chorus presented the "Christmas Oratario", by Camel Van Hulse at their annual Christmas Concert.

Second, in April, the Chapel Choir presented the Good Friday service at the Aurora Theater.

In May, the Junior & Senior Chorus attended the Spring Festival at Amherst.

Last, and best of all, the Spring Concert, at which they presented "Down in the Valley", by Kurt Weill.

athletic board

The Athletic Board is the group that governs all the athletic activities in the school, both inter-scholastic and intra-mural. It is also the group that organizes the Student Activity Ticket sales.

This year the Athletic Board has been revising the conditions on which athletic awards are to be given. These revisions will probably go into effect next year.

In football, success can be measured two ways: by the team's record or its spirit. The varsity team this year had a compelling spirit and desire to win which was evident throughout the season.

The Blue Devil started the 1951 season with a tie with Eden and a win over Williamsville before dropping their first game of the season to Depew. Following the Depew game the Aurorans defeated unbeaten Lancaster who had beat Hamburg the previous week. The Aurorans lost to both West Seneca and Amherst by a touchdown, to make the season's record 2 won, 1 tied and 3 lost. The Hamburg game was cancelled because of poor weather conditions, this year.

The East Aurora High School basketball team under a new coach, Mr. L. Hulbert, completed a highly successful campaign with a 8 win and 8 loss record, including a win over Hamburg.

The team was led by Tink Schopper, Chuck Raths, Dan Long, Bill Stradtman, and Dave Hower a newcomer from Berwick, Pennsylvania. Other members of the squad earning their varsity letters were:

EAHS enjoyed its fifth consecutive winning year on the golf links. Our team has won 13 matches, lost 4.

In the Sectional Tournaments, EAHS for the third year produced the individual schoolboy champion of Western New York, Ed Mallory. We have good candidates for a fourth consecutive champion in Seniors; Lohr, Thur, Crosby, and Howell; among the Juniors; Trank and Betts; and in the Sophomore class, Don Wrathall.

If won and lost records are all that is considered in measuring a teams success, our tennis team had a poor season. However, our tennis team made up for this in spirit, determination, and sportsmanship which a score column can not show. Even though they lost, they represented East Aurora with honor.

cheerleaders

The sports season of 1951-1952 was valuable to all girls who participated, chiefly because of Mrs. Morgan. Her interest, enthusiam and intelligence not only increased the interest in sports, but also improved sportsmanship and citizenship of the girls and, as a result, brought glory to the school. The Seniors salute you, Mrs. Morgan.

The Blue Devil

To Miss Palmer, the seniors would like to say "Thank you" for your interest and enthusiam which gave us the wonderful background in our sophomore and junior years. We missed you this year. The Seniors salute you, Miss Palmer.

basketball

This years basketball season was unusually successful under the able coaching of Mrs. Morgan. The teams chosen for playdays brought glory to their school by winning five of their six games. The scores were:

E.A.	30	Park	17
E.A.	24	Batavia	29
E.A.	40	Cleveland Hill	13
E.A.	39	Cleveland Hill	8

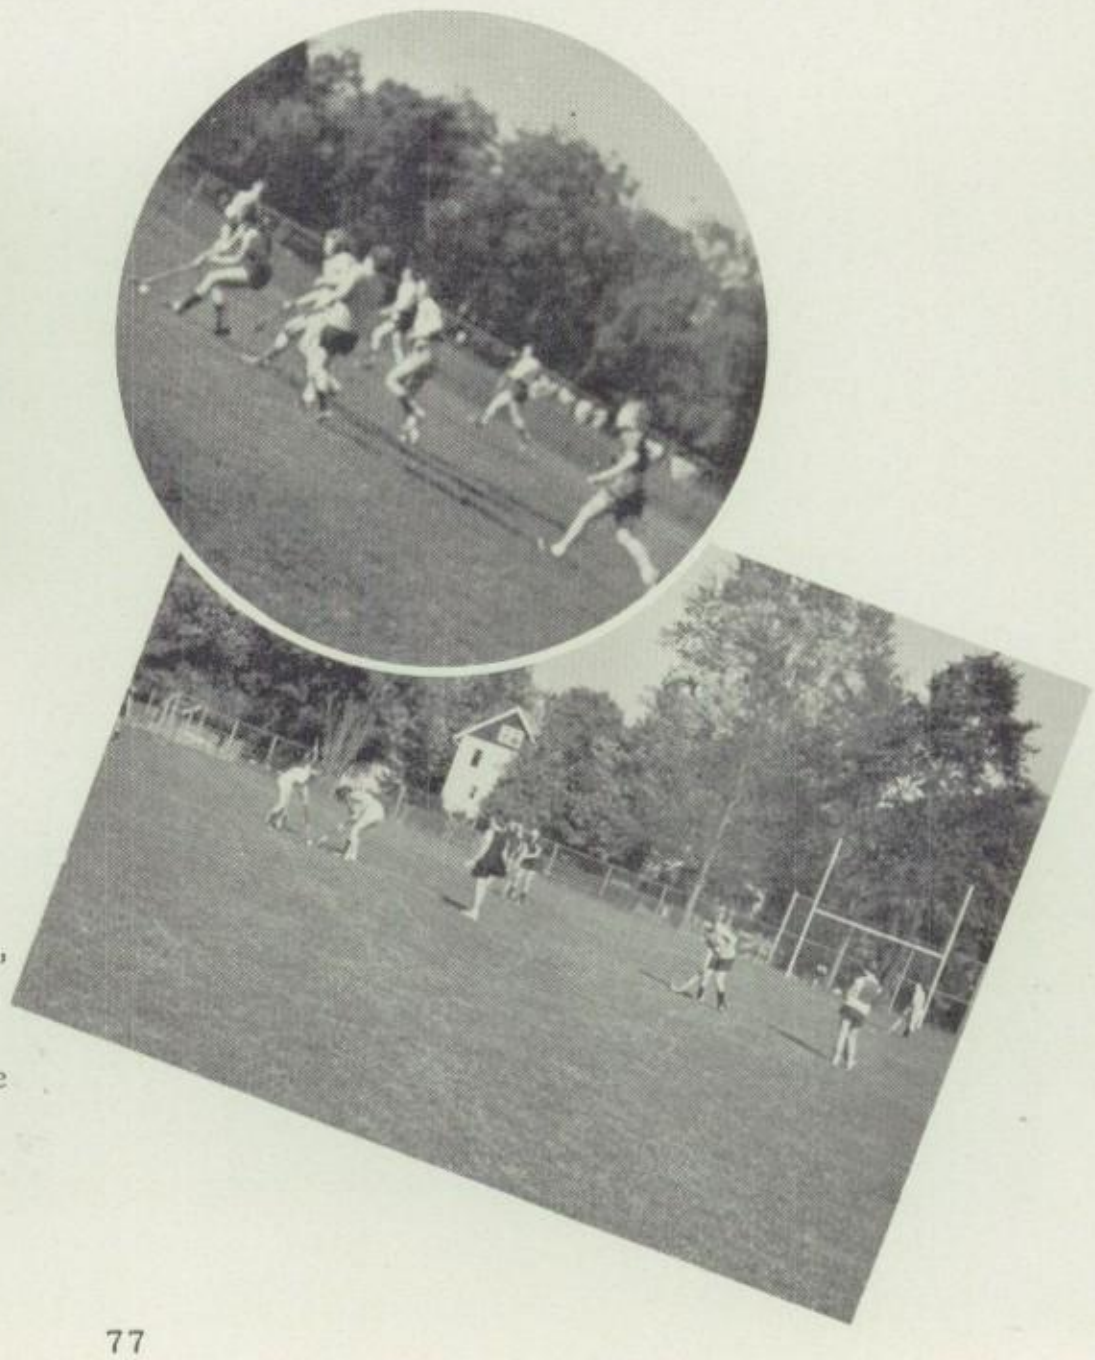
hockey



The Field Hockey season of 1951 was most successful under the able coaching of Mrs. Morgan. On playday at Harley we played Nazareth, Pitsford, Canadaigua, and Sacred Heart, holding all teams to scoreless ties. Virginia Burdick brought honor to the school upon her election to the the All-Star Team. A game with Batavia brought defeat to the undefeated EA team, 3-0. However team spirit and team co-peration remained the high point of our accomplishment this year.

It takes a long time to become expert in this field, but for a group of girls working for three years in the same league, has meant lots of fun, even though we didn't achieve our hopeless aim of that beloved "300". Under the consistent guidance of Mrs. Mable Wallenwein, we learned the rules and to abide by them. Our banquets and tournaments were looked forward to and we have only one regret---that this is our last year together. Best of luck to all those who venture into the future bowling world.

volleyball

Mrs. Morgan directed a lively volleyball intramural program this year. The four senior high teams battled to a three-way tie, but the seniors recovered and were proclaimed the final victors. The students played the women faculty on Sport's Night and defeated them 15-7. Jean Purdy, Sue Wyatt, and Marjory Nelson were among the high scoress.

baseball

Softball interest in the higher grades has been lax this year. However, Sue Wyatt, Nancy Ferguson, and Nancy Reading were in pitching and swinging at every opportunity. The 9th graders, however, deserve the credit as top team. Miss Palmer coached the teams.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, East Aurora
We'll always love thy name.
Though fleeting years may come and go
We will always sing thy fame.
We'll ne'er forget our high school days,
The friendships firm and true.
Aurora loves by every heart,
We pledge ourselves to you.

DEAR OLD E. A. HIGH

Dear old E. A. High
We love the blue and white you're flying,
Through the years to be
We'll ever tell of love undying,
And in the class or on the field
We'll bring you honor, victory
All hail to thee
Our Alma Mater, E. A. High
Rah! Rah! Rah!

ON, ON EAST AURORA

On, on East Aurora
On down the field
Drive over that goal line
Victory banners wield.
Work hard for each touchdown
Fight until the game is won
While we cheer for victory
East Aurora, ever on.

E. A.'s BRAVE MEN

When dear old E. A.'s brave men fall in line,
We'll win this game, we'll win another time,
For dear lod E. A.'s men I yell, I yell,
For dear old blue and white I yell, I yell, I yell.
And so it's fight, fight, fight, for every yard,
Circle the ends and hit the line right hard,
And roll Hamburg's men upon the sod, yes, the sod,
Rah-rah! Rah-rah! Rah!
